

DAILY EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.

ROSSER & McCARTHY,
Proprietors.

MONDAY EVENING, SEPT. 20, 1886.

UNDER the recent voluntary call $1,000,000 of bonds have been surrendered to the Government.

The Secretary of the Treasury has issued another call for $15,000,000 of the three-cent bonds, to mature the 16th of next month.

THE Republican Congressional convention at Chillicothe, Ohio, last Wednesday nominated J. J. Pugley on the 22d ballot. There were four candidates.

CHARLEY MARSHALL, who came in from Illinois Saturday, is the Democratic nominee for County Clerk, in Johnson County, that State. He has been in the State about two years. We hope he will be elected.

THE Western Associated Press and the New York Associated Press have sent $500 as a gift to the Charleston reporters who stood by their posts and sent out the first full and accurate reports of the earthquake.

This new law established for the benefit of the health of the State, requires physicians to report all contagious or infectious diseases under treatment immediately to the physician of the County Board of Health in each county.

JOHN SHERMAN is expected to come over from his home in Ohio and make a few speeches in this State in the coming contest. It will take more than a few of Sherman's speeches to save the Republicans from defeat in this district.

MRS LOUIE COOPER has opened a select school on Broadway. She is a young lady of fine character and we wish her success—Jesamine Journal.

Miss Cooper was one of the teachers in Miss Savage's private school at Fern Leaf, this county, and has many friends here who join in the wishes for her success.

SAYS the Bracken Democrat: "The Republican convention of this county passed a resolution pledging themselves that they would not engage in the use of money or whisky to secure the election of their candidates. If they will only stick to this proposition there won't be a handful of Republicans in this district after the November election."

TALK about hard times if you want to, but how does this sound from the Cincinnati Post? "Anyone taking a night trip by rail through Ohio at this time will find the factories all over the State alight and humming. 'Can't keep up with our orders,' is the prevailing testimony. The crops, except corn, are in; money plenty; railroads can't move their freight fast enough; the stock of made-up goods is low; and business is booming 'till you can't sleep."

Some reports indicate that Judge G. M. Thomas has not yet fully accepted the Congressional nomination tendered him by the Republican convention. The fact that his acceptance is conditional upon the managers securing a specified sum to put into the 'boodle fund,' is agreeing to give liberal to the fund.—Times-Democrat.

It is currently reported that Judge Thomas' sole object in making his present trip to Kansas is to consult with one of the leading "party managers," who is in that State just now, and see how much "boodle" the national committee will put in the contest. His making the race is conditioned on the party coming down handsomely with the wherewithal in politics.

The Friend of the Working Man.

The Albany Argus hits the nail on the head in this paragraph: "Every measure that looked toward the amelioration of the condition of the workingmen may be traced to Democratic sources, and the most beneficial laws on the statute book on that subject have a Democratic origin. The Democratic party has been unfaltering in its advocacy of the cause of the workingman, and its record is replete with signal instances of its sincerity in that cause. It has opposed under all circumstances the designs of the Republicans to strengthen the hands of monopoly and make labor a sort of helotry in this country. In Congress and the Legislature the most stubborn battles have been fought by the Democrats in behalf of the rights of labor and the curtailment of the power and insolence of monopolies. The neglect and indifference of the Republican Senate during the past session of Congress formed a striking contrast to the zeal of the Democratic House on labor questions. The most valuable work in the same cause during the session of the Legislature was done by Democrats. It is, therefore, to the interest of all workingmen to uphold the party which has ever been their best friend, and to ignore the pretensions of interested agitators and visionary theorists."

Too Much of It.
A New York correspondent of the Louisville Times says: "The industrious manner in which every small shooting affray in Kentucky is telegraphed to the New York papers has created an unmistakable demand for this kind of literature. An unreliable rumor, to the effect that a fiery Kentuckian in Robertson County has chopped off the head of his material great-uncle by way of concluding a domestic argument, or that some barefooted gentleman in a coon-skin cap from Perry County has waylaid and perforated his rival in business or love, are published with very complimentary headings, such as 'The Way They Do It in Kentucky,' 'Bluegrass Gentlemen in Trouble,' etc.

It is possible that the reputation of the State may survive such perverted intelligence, but wouldn't it be well to put some reasonable limit to news of this nature? The movements of Marshal Gross and his deputies have no greater general interest than those of officials in North Carolina and other States, but it is only from Kentucky that we hear minutely of the purposes of the officers in chase of some poor savage of the mountains, who has been guilty of distilling a few quarts of his native whisky. He is to be hunted to the death by men armed like a Prussian soldier with illimitable slaughter, while his house is to be blown up at a safe distance with dynamite. It all sounds very romantic, but the circus in Eastern Kentucky is confusing all good opinion and knowledge of Kentucky in the East. There is no doubt in Eastern minds about the settled ferocity of the native. It was amazing to see how tenderly the papers handled Major Terrill in the Halsted-McLean matter. The Times very promptly retracted some hasty and inconsiderate remarks it made about the Harvey Myers affair."

Comments on the Contest.
Judge Wall will represent this district in Congress for the next two years. Mark that down in your hat.—Robertson County Democrat.

The deliberations of the Augusta convention to nominate a candidate for Congress resulted in the selection of Hon. G. S. Wall, of Mason, on the seventh ballot. We had something to say several weeks ago regarding the nomination of Wall, but since it is the will of the majority that he should wear the mantle—that in their wisdom and judgment he is the man to redeem the district—we humbly submit, and hope the good fortune tendered this son of Mason in September will stand steadily on a sweeping Democratic victory in November. We extend to the nominees our good will, and stand ready to aid in his election.—Cynthiana Democrat.

Although Judge Savage came out of the Congressional race a loser, he has at all events gathered from the people who have heard him a golden harvest of good opinions of which any man might be proud. The dignity of his bearing, the extent of his information, the serious tone of his discussion, and the clearness of his arguments mark him as a man of attainments and one worthy of honor. He was comparatively unknown to the mass of the people of the district until he entered the canvass and introduced himself in his speeches, but he won admirers even though the condition of the canvass would not allow them to become supporters.—Catskill Leader.

The convention which met at Augusta the other day did splendid work in nominating Judge Garrett S. Wall for Congress. He is just the man to redeem this district from Republicanism and restore it to the place it occupied in the days of Rice, Phister and Stanton. We are naturally Democratic by a majority of fifteen hundred, and it is only because, through the machinations of unscrupulous politicians we are ever defeated. We have factions in our ranks, but Judge Wall can heal them. He has a record as a man, lawyer, judge, and politician which is entirely spotless. He is an excellent debater, well posted in the history of his country, a man of the people, well liked at home, and makes friends abroad. In the prime of life, active and industrious, he will make a splendid and triumphant campaign, and in Congress he will be the peer of his fellow. Let us ratify his nomination by giving him a rousing majority in old Lawrence.—Big Sandy News.

The Democrats have thus far renominated 93 members of the present House and defeated 69. The Republicans have renominated 64 and defeated 25.

AT Louisville, the other day, Marcus D. Richardson, of Trimble County, was paid a pension of $11,500. This is the largest pension ever paid in this State. It dates back to 1863, and was granted on account of total blindness from injuries received in the service of the Government.

We Shake!
The London Leader, a bright, new paper is just one year old, and has this to say to its friends: "Twelve months from to-day we will be in your midst to fight your battles and brighten your homes and lightened your cares—help those who help you. Shake, kind friends."

THE MEXICAN PRESIDENT.

HE DISCUSSES THE DISPUTED CASES OF CUTTING AND ERREURIS.

His Annual Message to the Mexican Congress on the Assembling of That Body, They Congratulate Themselves Over the Ending of the Cutting Case.

CITY OF MEXICO, Sept. 30.—In his annual message to congress, read on the assembling of that body, President Diaz said that Mexico's relations with foreign governments had continued generally on terms of friendship and good understanding. There had, however, recently occurred an incident which threatened to destroy the harmony and cordiality existing between this republic and its northern neighbor. A case of small importance, but it excited in an unexpected manner, and owing to a conjunction of circumstances, the passions on either side of the Rio Grande.

"I refer," continues the message, "to the matter of the American journalist, which has already come to your knowledge by public notice. I do not desire to make any comments on our views that in such an emergency the government and the good name of the country could be saved without a serious conflict; thanks to the prudent and strict legal conduct of the courts and authorities of the state. I do not wish to add to the general sense of our own people and the administration of the United States, which, when better informed, did not insist on its demand, which gave rise to this transient difficulty."

"Texan patriots have been greatly annoyed at references of alleged outrages on citizens of that country by officials of our own. In their eagerness to accumulate charges against Mexico, they have referred mistakenly to the case of an individual named Ernesto, a native of the United States, committed in our territory. It will suffice to say that Ernesto was of Mexican nationality, and was voluntarily delivered by the Texan authorities to a force of the state of Coahuila without his previous consent. The Texan messengers and horsemen who had him in their power were ignorant of the laws of the Mades and Persians in the councils of his party. No movement which had not received his sanction could not succeed, and he must be elected to an office in which he could be interested, without having first received his blessing."

Phelan aspired to congress without his consensus, his rival for the nomination being Mr. Josiah Patterson. The result of the primaries last Tuesday was so crushing a defeat for Phelan that he did not run. But the district is very close, and though it was carried several terms by the Hon. Casey Young, it is now represented by the Hon. Zach Taylor, Republican, who has done good work for his district, and is very popular.

EARTHQUAKE TREMORS.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Sept. 30.—There were two distinct shocks of earthquake in this city, Friday evening, the first, which was perceptible, and which was preceded by the usual demonstrations. The quivering of the earth was followed by two or three distinct vibrations, apparently from east to west. The shock of 8 p.m. was very strong and hardly perceptible. Passengers from Summerville reported two disturbances at the time named, and stated that there were several others between midnight and 8 a.m. A distinct shock was felt at Charlestown about fifteen miles from Charleston, at 2:35 a.m. Saturday morning.

DEATH OF THE LONG SLEEPER.

FREDERICK, Md., Sept. 30.—Lena Fry, the little daughter of David Fry, at Stumpstones, Loudoun county, Virginia, who astonished the physicians and people in the vicinity by her long sleep, died Saturday morning, when 10 years old. Her first long sleep was two weeks ago, when she slumbered sixty-six hours. She was thought to be dead. Her last and final sleep began nine days ago, and she was buried in a deep grave. Friends about her not to let her go to sleep, but they could not relieve her of the drowsiness which took possession of her. All efforts to waken her were useless. The doctors say she starved death while asleep.

MUST GO UNDER GROUND.

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—Corporation Council of the New York Stock Exchange sent to the police commissioners as to their power to arrest agents of the Western Union Telegraph company, who may hereafter attempt to string that company's wires over the surface of the ground, on elevated railroad structures or other places, in order to save the expense of power and duty of the police department to instruct the members of the force to arrest without warrant, any person who may undertake to place telegraph, telephone and electric light wires and cables above the surface of the streets, lawns and avenues of this city.

THE BALTIMORE & OHIO'S CREDIT.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 30.—The attention of a high official of the Baltimore & Ohio was called to the statement published in the Philadelphia Ledger that Mr. Garrett was compelled to obtain new loans required to complete the Baltimore elevated section of the Philadelphia branch, the official said: "This is the first time we have heard that we were in want of money for that or any other purpose, and we have received tenders of loans from English capitalists, but they have not been accepted."

THE PRESCRIPTION EXPLODED.

TIFFIN, O., Sept. 30.—C. W. Skaggs, a Green Spring druggist, met with a terrible accident while compounding a prescription. He was mixing sulphuric acid with ether, and the mixture exploded, throwing the acid in his face and eyes. He suffered the most terrible agony for hours, and will lose one eye, and possibly both.

NEGRO PREACHER HUNG IN GEORGIA.

MACON, Ga., Sept. 30.—Rev. Jesse Cook, a negro preacher, was hanged in Butler, Ga., in the presence of 10,000 people. He deserved his fate, as he was guilty of many sins, but he made fifteen points speech, but did not confess his crime. He confessed his crime to his counsel-
